

The Countdown is ON!

Just a head's up! In case you're not already on the waiting list, I wanted to remind everyone that the official launch of the Become a Pinterest VA class starts today. The sign up window is for 4 days only, so if you're considering getting started don't miss this short window! You can sign up here.

Not ready yet or still not sure? I get it. I've been looking at this course for a few months and am dying to try it, but I have too much on my plate at the moment (trying to finish writing a book by the end of the year!). So instead, I bought the Pinterest Presence 20 Step Workbook and am going to implement some of the strategies and see how they work—I'll let you know! It's a great deal at only $9 and gives you a little insight into the kinds of things you can do with Pinterest, and how Kristen and Gina run a class. If you want to test things out this way, you can buy it here.

If you miss out on this class they will have another in a few months. Maybe I'll have my ducks in a row then and we can be classmates! If you do sign up, check in with me and let me know what you think! I'd love to get some feedback on how the opportunity is working for you.

Stay safe during this crazy weather season!

Hugs,

P.S. If you want to see a video Gina and Kristen made about how businesses make money through Pinterest, you can do that here.
